DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-7 and 9-10 have been presented for examination.

Claim 8 has been cancelled.

Examiners Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ed Tracy on 31 July 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

Please amend claim 7 to read:

Claim 7: A computer program product embodied on a computer-readable recording medium, comprising code, when executed causes a computer to perform steps comprising:

calculating in an arithmetic device

a plurality of calculated mode vectors, and natural frequencies or resonance frequencies of a plurality of components of the object said

calculating step including executing a computer implemented finite-element method model on the object to indicate a boundary condition between the plurality of components of the object;

extracting an extracted, calculated mode vector of the plurality of calculated mode vectors having a degree of correlation at or above a predetermined threshold, said degree of correlation being relative to an experimental mode vector obtained in an experiment, --said extracting step includes reducing a number of the plurality of calculated mode vectors by filtering said plurality of calculated mode vectors using at least one of order ratio filtering, component comparison filtering and frequency filtering;-- and

identifying the boundary condition of the elements based on the extracted, calculated mode vector and the natural frequency or the resonance frequency corresponding to the extracted, calculated mode vector.

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims are novel and nonobvious over the prior art of record for the following reasons. The prior art of record does not disclose or suggest the following features in light of the specification as well as in combination as arranged in the claims:

The extracting step includes reducing a number of the plurality of calculated mode vectors by filtering said plurality of calculated mode vectors using at least one of order ratio filtering, component comparison filtering and frequency filtering. The filtering processes are defined in the specification of the instant application in Figure 4, elements 122, 124, and 126 as well as with respect to order ratio filtering, see paragraphs 60-61, component comparison filtering, see paragraphs 62-65, and frequency filtering, see paragraph 66. The limitations not corresponding to the filtering processes described have been anticipated by the previously cited references, Stubbs U.S. Patent No. 5,327,358 as well as Liu. However the filtering processes as defined in the specification in combination and conjunction with the claims as arranged render the claims novel and non-obvious. In addition, software packages such as ANSYS and NASTRAN which perform FEM analysis are relevant prior art but lack the specificity to overcome the claims as arranged with specificity drawn to the filtering processes defined in the specification and recited above.

Art Unit: 2128

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
